

Later the Elkhorn school and meetinghouse was moved to Keetley and used as a dwelling house for the Jackson couple, who were school teachers at the newly constructed red-brick school house which is still standing today. Church meetings were also conducted in this building, but was short-lived, when buses became available, about 1931, to transport students to the schools in Heber City.

Keetley, a successful and progressive mining district in the 1920's and 1930's, contributed many stalwart and faithful families within the Heber Second Ward. Due to the decline in the mining economy, many were forced to leave. There are several ward members who remember the joy of making their monthly visits to the row of cottages and other homes in that area.

A reproduction of a portion of minutes from a minute book of the Riverdale Sunday School of the Elkhorn Ward, reveals the faith and fortitude of these early settlers:

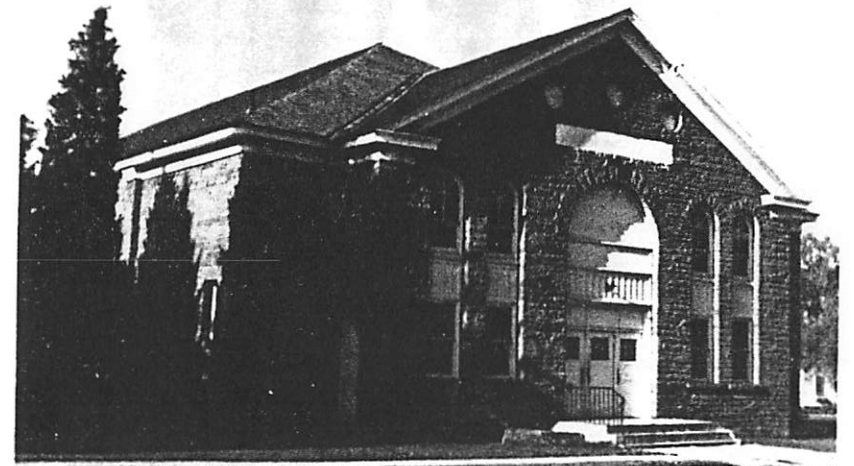

Sunday July 21 1901.
The members of the Elkhorne ward met together with Presidency of the Wasatch Stake and a number of Brothers and Sisters at the of Healer, met at the Riverdale School House in a room in the capacity of a ward conference. Heber Amusement Hall built in 1906-1907 by the three Heber Wards, located at First West and First North.

One of the first cooperative projects of the three new wards was the construction of the Heber Amusement Hall in 1906-1907. The building was badly needed to meet the growing demands of the auxiliary organizations within the three wards.

Historical Note:

"The building, known as the Heber Social Hall, was later remodeled to include an annex and kitchen facilities. Today, it is owned, maintained, and utilized by Wasatch County as a Senior Citizens Center."

When the building was started in 1906, the men turned out in full force to help on the project. The women were also present to serve them a delicious meal at the Wasatch Stake Tabernacle. The huge oak dance floor was carefully planned with more than 400 coil springs under the floor. It is still considered one of the best dance floors in the state of Utah. Over the years it has been a center for social and cultural events for the community as well as the church functions.

Heber Amusement Hall remodeled about 1940, with annex added. It is now known as the Senior Citizen Center.

Planning for Building a Chapel

As the Heber Second Ward grew, the bishopric realized the need for a new chapel. The Wasatch Wave reported that, "The Ward had the opportunity to purchase the site, west of the Wave office, on the corner of Center and First West." (Wasatch Wave, November 11, 1911).

When the Center Creek Ward purchased the abandoned building on the site which belonged to a Methodist church and moved it to their community, Bishop Rasband called a group of men, in the fall of 1913, to take their teams into Strawberry Valley and obtain lumber for the building project.

It was late in the fall when they got started, and they worked waist-deep in the snow, at times, but stayed on the job until they had enough lumber to build forms for the foundation of the building.

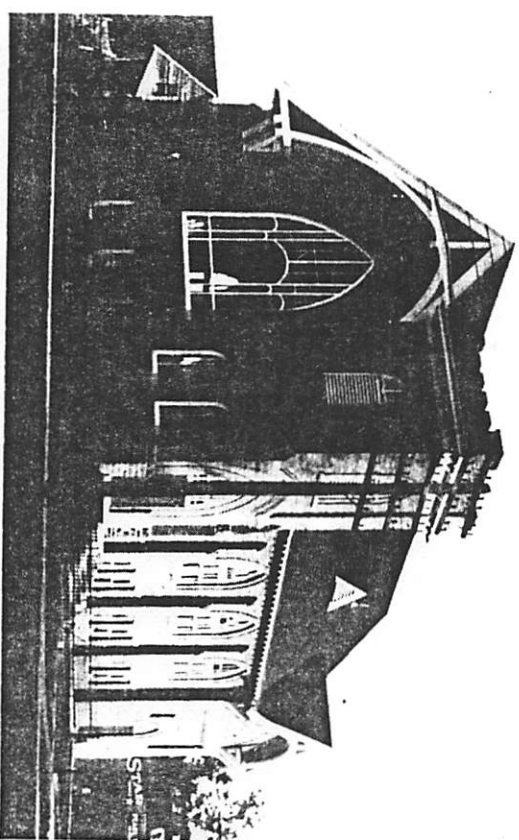

The ground was surveyed and machinery started work on April 4, 1913. Actual work began March 16, 1914.

The following information, about the building of the chapel, was reported in The Wasatch Wave:

1. "Work on the Second Ward meeting house has begun and it is the intention of those in charge to push the building toward completion as soon as possible." (March 20, 1914).
2. "Bishop Rasband reports that the building will be completed and paid for this week. The building is a credit to the Ward and a material addition to Center Street. A few more substantial building on this street would add very greatly to the good appearance of our town." (September 11, 1914).
3. "The brick work on the new meeting house of Heber Second Ward will be completed this week and the roof will assume position immediately thereafter." (September 19, 1914).

By December of 1915, the building was ready for dedication. It was built to seat 400 people and on the day of the dedication, 390 individuals were in attendance to hear Elder Francis M. Lyman of the Council of Twelve offer the dedicatory prayer.

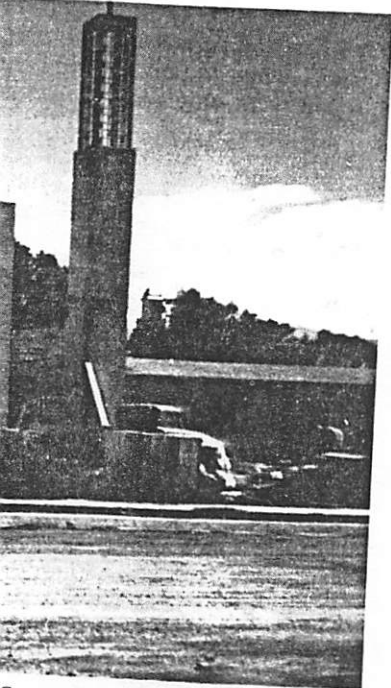

In his financial report, Bishop Rasband noted that the entire cost of the building, with furnishings, was $19,415.74. For its time, it was considered the finest church building in the Wasatch Stake. Because of its central location, the Heber Second Ward building has been a favorite gathering place for community and civic functions.

"PUT YOUR SHOULDER TO THE WHEEL"

1. The world has need of willing men, who wear the workers seal
Come help the good work move along, put your shoulder to the wheel.
Chorus:
Put your shoulder to the wheel; push along
Do your duty with a heart full of song.
We all have work; let no one shirk; Put your shoulder to the wheel.
2. The Church has need of helping hands, And hearts that know and feel.
The work to do is here for you; Put your shoulder to the wheel.
3. Then don't stand idly looking on, The fight with sin is real.
It will be long, but must go on; Put your shoulder to the wheel.
4. Then work and watch and fight and pray, With all thy might and zeal
Push every worthy work along; Put your shoulder to the wheel.

"PRAISE GOD FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW"

1. Praise God from whom all blessing flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, yet heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

(Heber Second Ward) and John Barton Moulton (Heber Fifth Ward), were charged with the responsibility of materializing the dream under the leadership of the Stake President J. Harold Call, for the building was to be a two-ward and stake center.

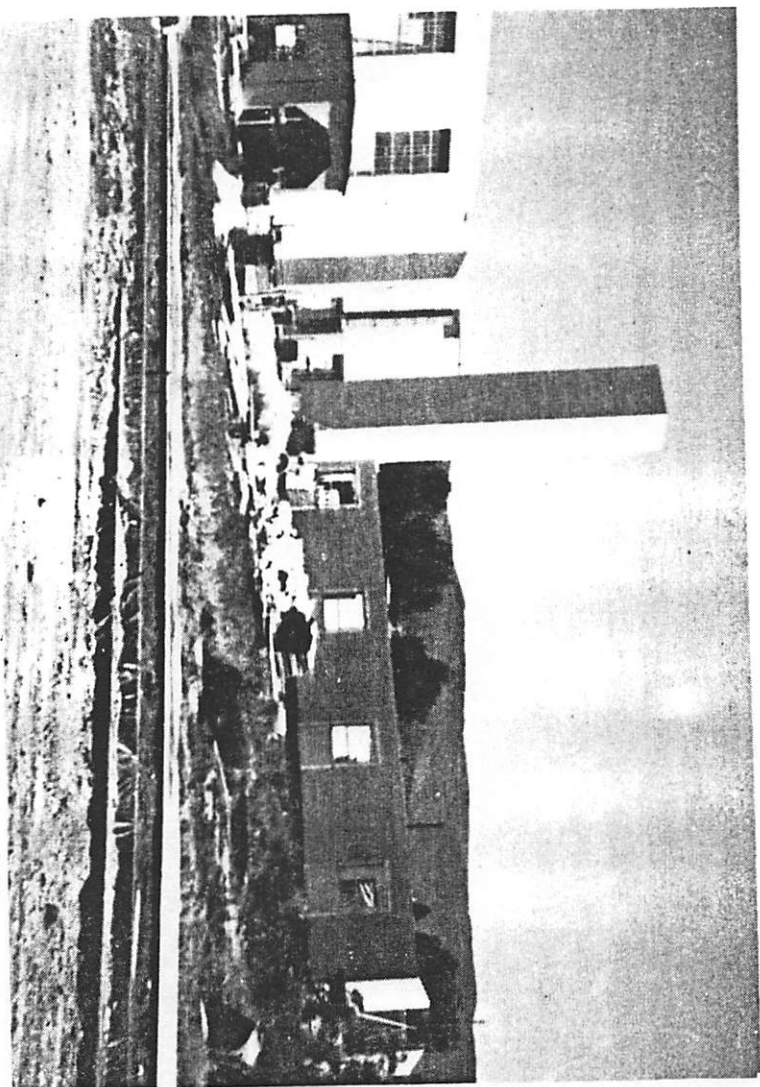

Each Tuesday morning for many months, the three men met together in an atmosphere of prayer and cooperation to solve problems, project the work for the week, discuss ways to meet the special building needs of the people they served. Often the two bishops would travel together to spend the rest of the day meeting with members of the Church Building Committee, to present their desires, to persuade and to induce, so they could get the finest possible building. Since this was the first fully contracted building after the building missionary program, they had much persuading and inducing to do.

During the planning stage, the two bishops and stake presidency often traveled together to visit similar buildings, throughout the area, to obtain ideas and suggestions.

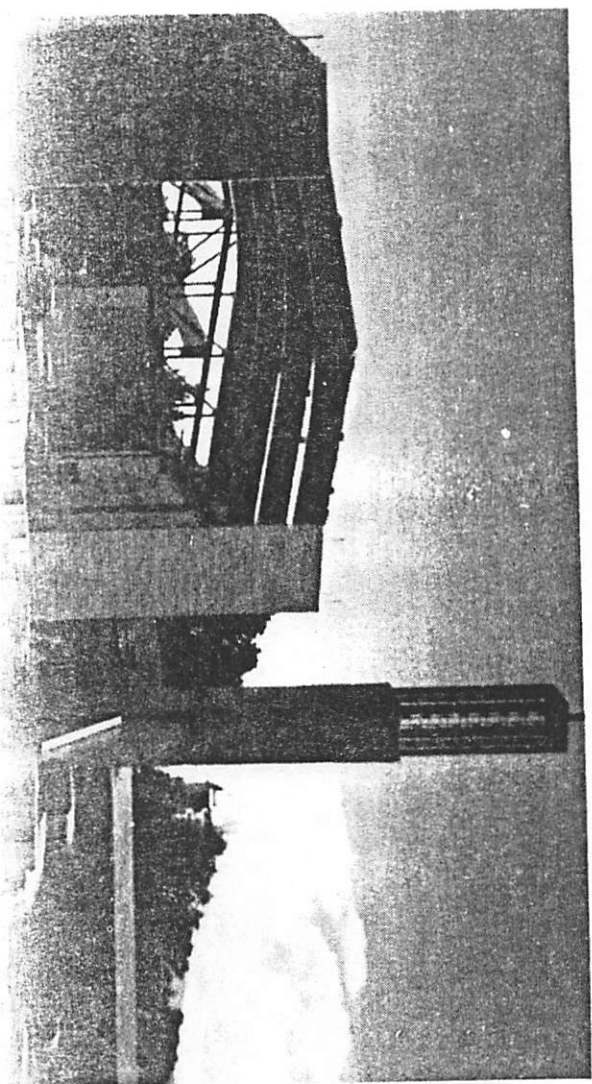

Two weeks before the ground-breaking for the new building was scheduled, the site was under three feet of snow. Many predicted it could not happen, but the bishops stood firm, having faith it could and would happen. Ground-breaking day (March 15, 1966) was a beautiful day. Only a thin layer of slush had to be scraped away so that the ceremony could be held. From then until January 22, 1967, when the dedication ceremony was held, the work went on a pace with only a half-day interruption during a rainstorm in July.

Chapel in Second-Fifth Ward Stake Center, February 1967.

Among the members of the two wards, there existed a friendly rivalry to see which one could contribute the most time, money, labor, and talent to the new building. Since the building was contracted, contributions of labor were, of necessity, limited, but members mixed mud and toled it to the bricklayers and did other such labor, but it was Bishop Moulton who persuaded one of his non-member families to take advantage of an opportunity to contribute the beautiful mirror that reflects the baptismal font.

As with all large undertakings of this nature, there were a few spicy undercurrents of opposition, but the two bishops and the stake president worked shoulder to shoulder, and the building was erected and furnished in record time. During this time, they experienced the blessings and approbation of the Lord for them and for their ward members.

They were nearing the completion of the building, and they needed more funds to meet the projected dedication date. One Heber Second Ward member committed himself to a large monthly payment. He said, "I don't know where the money is coming from, but I'll get it to you." A day or two later, he told the bishop, "I wish I'd pledged more! I got a raise exactly the amount I pledged!"

At the time of our release the Ward had no debt and a sizable savings.

In 1980-82, Mima and I filled a mission to the Micronesia Guam Mission.

I am now working in the Provo Temple and have been sustained a financial stake clerk in the Heber City Utah Stake.

This is our Heavenly Fathers Kingdom, here on earth, Jesus Christ is His Son and our Savior. Through our obedience to the commandments we may regain His presence.

HICKEN, Mima Broadbent

I, like Nephi, was born of goodly parents. My father, David A. Broadbent and my mother Mima Melissa Murdock Broadbent were long time residents of the Heber Second Ward. I was the eighth of fourteen children and the sixth of ten daughters born to them.

I graduated from Wasatch High School and Wasatch Stake Seminary. I was fortunate to attend the B.Y.U. during the depression years. I worked for my tuition by copying diaries and the famous five-minute sermons given in Monday Devotionals by Dr. George H. Brimhall. I received my teaching certificate and was one of the few in my class to be employed that year. I taught in the Provo City Schools until I was married. I earned the balance of credits for my degree by correspondence and home study and graduated from Brigham Young University in 1945 with a degree in Education.

I married Don L. Hicken on June 24, 1936 in the Salt Lake Temple. To us were born two sons: Don Lynn and Dee Allen. Lynn married JaLaine Childs and to them were born five children: Charlotte, Melinda, Scott, Marjorie and Bruce. Dee married Judy Ann Loosle and to them were born seven children: Allen, Bret, Stephanie, Tara, Emily, Tyler and Melissa. both boys filled missions to South America and have always been active members of the Church and now are serving in bishoprics.

My husband was called on a mission to the Eastern States in 1952, leaving me with Lynn and Dee. I went back to the school room and taught in the Wasatch County School District from then until my retirement in 1979. I enjoyed teaching young people and in 1971 I was recognized as an outstanding Teacher of America. In 1978 I was nominated as one of the teachers from Utah for the National Teacher of the Year.

After graduation from Primary, I became secretary of the Heber Second ward Primary and have held a position in the Church from that time. I served phases of Primary work from the beginners class, In-service to the Presidency. In Sunday School, I have been a teacher and Junior Sunday School Coordinator. I was Beehive leader, Laurel leader, speech director, in-service leader and served in the MIA Presidency.

Don and I served in the Micronesia-Guam mission 1980-82. They are a beautiful and loving people living in the islands of the sea who have been responsive to the Gospel. After returning from our mission I had the privilege of working in the German extraction program and am now serving as the Sunday School Teacher Development Leader; and we are workers in the Provo Temple.

In addition to my professional and church activities, I have had the opportunity to participate in various community activities. These include 4-H club, County Fair activities, DUP and the Shakespearean Literary CLub.

I have spent most of my life in the Heber Second Ward which offered me many opportunities for growth and development.

SEITER, Walter H.

When I came to this country in February 1926, I brought some bread and hardwurst, a testimony of the Gospel, a will to succeed and a stubborn disposition. The bread and wurst are gone, but I've seen successes, and I still have my testimony and my disposition.

I was born in Karlsruhe, Germany on April 25, 1907 to Wilhelm Heinrich and Martha Julia Johanna Hartmann Seiter. Our family was a close and happy family even though the horrors of World War I dominated much of our childhood. Our closeness was strengthened by the Gospel, which my parents embraced at the turn of the century. During the war years, my father was our branch president.

From the time my parents joined the Church, it was a family dream to join the Saints in America. When the opportunity came, we embraced it, even though it meant a great financial sacrifice. Since we were among the first immigrants from Germany after the war, we were subjected to some prejudice, but we found many kind people who helped us learn the language and customs.

My training as a baker helped me find work at a bakery that paid nine dollars for a 72 hour week. Later, at the Provo Bakery, I met Uncle Dick and Aunt Teenie Duke of Heber City, who sold me their bakery in 1927.

In 1929, I was called on a mission to Germany. The Duke's bought the bakery back and when I returned I bought it again. Because of a special permit, arranged by Senator Reed Smoot, I was able to serve two years and re-enter the United States without problems.

A few days after my return, I met Alice June Facer whom I married in the Salt Lake Temple on June 5, 1933.

On December 20, 1937, I became a naturalized and proud citizen of the United States to which I wanted to make a contribution, so I served on the Wasatch County School Board a total of 20 years.

My most rewarding service, however, has been in the Church. I served three missions, one with my wife (1978-79) in Germany. I have also served in various positions in the auxiliaries and as ward chorister.

I began my service in the Heber Second Ward Bishopric as a ward clerk and then served as a counselor. I was called to serve as bishop on June 30, 1963. That month I sold my bakery to Dan Bates and began working for Turner Building Supply. Later I became executive chef at the Homestead.

At the time I became bishop, the Fifth Ward had been organized and the two wards and the stake were working diligently to raise funds for a new building. I became the agent bishop, and working with me were Bishop John Barton Moulton and President J. Harold Call. My prediction at the groundbreaking on March 15, 1966, that we would finish the building in a year, was met with skepticism, but on January 15, 1967, thanks to the outstanding cooperation and dedication of the wonderful people in our wards and stake, the building was dedicated.

While I was bishop, I served as chairman of the Wasatch Stake Bishop's Council when we modernized the cannery and bishop's storehouse, and as chairman of the Coalville Region Bishop's Council where for two years I assisted in managing the affairs of Welfare Square and Bishop's Storehouse in Salt Lake. My serve as bishop lasted almost nine years.

In February 1980, my wife and I began serving as coordinators of the German Name Extraction Program of the Heber Region and in May 1984, we were set apart as ordinance workers in the Provo Temple.

SEITER, Alice June Facer

I, Alice June Facer Seiter, was born June 17, 1912 to William Orvil and Olive Esther Harding Facer in Ogden, Utah. I was attending the BYU when I met Walter.

Early in my marriage I formulated some goals: 1) I would be so good to my husband that he'd want no one but me, 2) I would rear my children as though each were an only child, 3) I would earn a Ph.D. degree, 4) I would become a published author, and 5) I would serve willingly in the Church.

To expedite goal one, I worked with Walter in the bakery and became a bench hand and his only cake decorator. Our children, Virginia Kay Barclay, Carolyn June Beckstrand, Carl William, Beverly Esther Pace, Martha Gay Schmerse, Steven Paul, Michael Walter, Mark Evan, Wendy Joan Nichol, and Dwight Christian must testify to the success I achieved with goal two.

I earned a B.A. degree and an M.A. degree from the BYU, but the Ph.D. still eludes me. As for goal four, I'm still working on it, but I did teach school 12 years and published one book titled, Heather.

My service in the Church has included callings in all the auxiliary organizations in the ward or the stake including five years as president of the Heber Second Ward Relief Society.

We are both grateful that we are still useful in the work of the Lord and in our family.

PRICE, Duane C.

I was born August 18, 1926 in Maeser, Uintah County, Utah (near Vernal). My parents are Absalom Price and Mamie Arline Carpenter Price. They had four sons: Shirley A., Daniel G., Boyd C. and Duane C., and one daughter, Marilyn Price (Hinting).

I grew up on a farm doing all the work and chores necessary to be a part of a family farm operation. Horses, cows and other farm animals were an important part of my life and I learned to appreciate this life style.

I attended the Maeser Elementary School and Uintah High School, graduating in 1944. I was very active in all types of sports and participated on the school track and basketball teams. I also loved and participated in dramatics and music. Soon after high school graduation I enlisted in the U.S. Navy and served aboard a minesweeper in the Pacific. I saw lots of water and many ports from the Philippines, to Korea, Japan and China.

After being honorably discharged from the Navy, I was called to serve a mission in the North Central States Mission beginning January 7, 1947. Although the mission covered Minnesota, North and South Dakota, half of Montana and up to Winnipeg, Canada, I spent my whole mission in Minnesota. It was a great blessing to me and I enjoyed it very much.

Upon my return home, I enrolled at Brigham Young University eventually graduating in June, 1966 with a B.S. degree.

On June 16, 1950 I was married to Eula Pearl Sessions in the Salt Lake Temple by Robert D. Young, temple president. We have eight children: Arlene (Carlile), Debra (Mair), Keith D., Teri (Burgin), Gary S., Brent D., Douglas G. and Daryl G. Teri and Gary are twins as are Douglas and Daryl.

I worked for the Vernal Express for two years learning the printing and newspaper trades. I then worked for Baker Oil Tools, Inc, and oil field service company, for five years. Since October 1956 my work has been with the Utah Department of Employment Security as an interviewer, counselor, manager of the Heber office and currently director of unemployment insurance for the state. I have never been without employment, partly because I like to work and partly because I like to plan ahead in order to be responsible for my own needs.

My opportunities for Church service have been many. I have served in several capacities in ward and stake YMMIA, Sunday school and priesthood callings. I was ordained a Seventy and later a High Priest by Elder Spencer W. Kimball of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles. I served as 2nd counselor in the Vernal 5th Ward Bishopric, High Councilman and Stake Clerk in the Ashley Stake, Bishop of the Vernal 6th Ward, Bishop's counselor in Orem 2nd Ward and counselor to Bishop Walter Seiter in the Heber 2nd Ward. I was sustained as Bishop of the Heber 2nd Ward on April 2, 1972 and was set apart (previously ordained a bishop by Elder John Longden, assistant to the twelve) as bishop of the Heber 2nd Ward on June 9, 1972 by Elder David B. Haight, Assistant to the Quorum of the Twelve. Larry Ward and Jack Young were set apart as counselors.

In the short time I served as Bishop (less than three months) I was blessed with some sweet spiritual experiences involving some of the wonderful members of the ward.

PRICE, Eula Sessions

I was born January 17, 1929 in Whiterocks, Uintah, Utah. My parents were Mary Erma Moosman and Alexander Sessions. I was the youngest of four children; Dean A., June LaRue and Barney Burl.

Whiterocks is part of the Ute Indian Reservation and where I lived until I was a senior in high school. I attended Alterra High School where I was active in school activities and journalism. Holding offices in student body positions and yearbook editor.

My family moved to Vernal the summer before I was a senior in high school and I attended Uintah High School and graduated in May of 1947.

My father passed away in January of this year. This event had a great impact on my life and greatly influenced the choices I would make concerning activity in the church and what my future goals would be.

I then attended Weber College in Ogden majoring in secretarial science and returned to Vernal to work for Vernal City as a secretary until I married.

I was married to Duane C. Price on June 16, 1950 in the Salt Lake Temple by Robert D. Young, president of the temple. Our 8 children are listed in my husband's history.

I have worked as a secretary at various times in my life, but the major concern of my time has been rearing my children to love the Lord and serve righteously in his kingdom.

I have held almost every position in the Church that are available to women and enjoyed them all. The climax of my church service is occurring now as I serve as an ordinance worker in the Salt Lake Temple. It has given me a joy and satisfaction that I have never felt in any other calling.

I am so grateful to have been a part of the life in Heber Second Ward. We had many happy and spiritual experiences while there. I know that we are engaged in the work of our Father in Heaven here on the earth. This is indeed his Church on the earth. I pay tribute to those fine leaders of the ward that helped lead and guide our family while we lived there. Many of the teachings of fine leaders there are now being used by my children as they endeavor to teach those with whom they are working.

CARLILE, Ralph Todd

Ralph Todd Carlile was born to Frederick Giles Carlile and Sarah Todd on September 20, 1924, in Heber City, Utah. Ralph is the second of six children. Ralph attended the North School Elementary in Heber.

He attended junior high and high school at Wasatch High in Heber. Ralph was a three year member of the Future Farmer of America and, in 1933, took a fat baby beef to the World's Fair in San Francisco. The trip was made by train and was quite an adventure for the young man.

During Ralph's senior year he served as student body president of the high school. He graduated from high school and seminary in 1942.

The family raised shorthorn beef cattle and sheep. Consequently, his summers were spent raising and harvesting hay and daily responsibilities included milking cows and hauling or pushing milk to the local creamery. During his high school years, Ralph also worked at the telephone office, post office, and old Heber Mercantile.

He served in the United States Armed Forces from January 1945 through October 1946 and was variously stationed in Hawaii, Okinawa, and Japan. Thirty-three years later he visited some of these locations while traveling with his wife, ReNee, and son Ron following Ron's missionary service in Japan.

Following his release from the army, he briefly attended BYU before being called on a Western States L.D.S. mission from October 1947-49. Ralph served fifteen months in the Wyoming district and nine months in the Denver district as a Supervising Elder.

On May 9, 1950, he was married in the Salt Lake Temple to ReNee Thacker of Charleston, Utah. They have lived in Heber since that time. They have five children. As of 1987, they have also been blessed with five grandsons and one granddaughter.

Ralph was graduated from Brigham Young University in the spring of 1953 along with two brothers, Glen and Tom. Later, in 1978, as a part of his professional career, he completed extensive course work in finance and banking and graduated from the Pacific Coast School of Banking.

Ralph worked for the Heber Exchange and Safeway, Inc. for approximately ten years and then, in December 1959, began working for the First Security Bank of Utah, N.A. He was employed at the Heber branch for twenty years where he held the positions of Assistant Manager and Manager. He is currently an assistant Vice President of the Utah Mortgage Loan Division of First Security Bank.

In January of 1953, Ralph experienced a very serious illness and faced the prospect of long term impairment. However, through the faith and prayers of family and friends and administration by those holding the Holy Melchizedek Priesthood, he was miraculously healed and returned to full health.

Ralph's church service has been extensive. In February 1953, he was called to serve on the Wasatch Stake High Council and was set apart by Harold B. Lee. In October, 1959, he was called to serve as second counselor to President J. Harold Call in the Wasatch Stake Presidency. In June of 1972, after serving in the stake presidency for thirteen years, he was released, and, less than one week later, was called as Bishop of the Heber 2nd Ward. He served as a bishop for over six years. In January, 1980, he was ordained a patriarch by Marvin J. Ashton and presently serves as one of three patriarchs

in the Heber Utah Stake.

He has served the community as a member of the Rotary Club and as its Heber Chapter President in 1971-72. He presently serves as a member of the city Board of Adjustments.

His hobbies include farming, gardening, journal keeping, sports, his children's sports, and in a more relaxed vein, billiards, crossword puzzles, and Rook. He is known to be a formidable but fair competitor in these last three endeavors.

His five children include: Ray Todd, who married Arlene Price. They have three children. Todd currently works for the FBI in Los Angeles, California. Ralph Neil, who presently works for the Department of Continuing Education at BYU. Ronald Bruce, who married Katherine Hyde. They have three children. Marjorie, who presently teaches at Wasatch High School. Colleen, who married Mike Mawhinney. They have one son and live in Midway. All have graduated from Brigham Young University, four have completed LDS missions and all are active members of the Church.

CARLILE, ReNee Thacker

Born on the wintry day of December 2, 1928, ReNee Thacker is the eldest daughter of Ray Alva Thacker and Jemima Casper Thacker. As ReNee had four older brothers; Dale, Joseph, Vern, and Dan, her birth as the first girl was a departure from the tradition and a very joyous occasion. Two sisters, Marva and Vera, were later born and completed the family.

Her childhood was a very happy one surrounded by a large family in the pleasant rural environs of Charleston, Utah. As her father owned and operated a sawmill, the summer months of her childhood were spent in the mountains near Willow Creek and Soapstone east of Heber Valley. Living conditions were spare but her mother's good cooking and the beautiful scenic setting of Mother Nature make ReNee recall this period as one of the happiest of her life.

ReNee entered the Charleston grade school at the age of five and attended grades one through eight. During these years she also began developing one of the greatest talents of her life, the piano. An investment of five dollars bought twelve beginning piano lessons that have paid a lifetime of dividends to herself and many others.

Her musical ability continued to increase through high school where she quickly became the accompanist at most school events and for the chorus.

Music has been among the hallmark contributions ReNee has given to church and community. She has served as a stake and/or ward organist from her teenage years, has taught scores of students the piano, has played at over thirty high school commencement exercises, and has given significant comfort to many in need through piano and organ renditions at hundreds of funerals. She also played professionally with dance bands and provided dinner entertainment at the Homestead for a number of years.

In high school, she served as vice-president of her senior class and graduated in 1946 as an honor student.

She attended BYU in the fall of 1946 on a $25.00 scholarship which paid her tuition for that quarter. At about this time she met Ralph Carlile who was just returning from military service. They attended BYU at the same time and formed the relationship that led to their marriage following Ralph's missionary service.

In 1947, Utah's Centennial Celebration of the pioneer's arrival in Utah, she was chosen as queen for Wasatch County. She had the opportunity of making many special appearances that year and was very honored to represent Wasatch County.

On May 9, 1950, ReNee and Ralph were married in the Salt Lake Temple by David A. Broadbent. They made their home in Heber and Ralph continued his education at BYU. In 1951, their first child, Todd, was born and through the years, Neil, Ron, Marjorie, and Colleen joined the family.

She has given "notable" service in the church as an organist, ward Relief Society president, ward Primary president, counselor in the Stake Relief Society, and as a teacher. This significant service was in addition to the support of her husband in his long service in the stake presidency and as a bishop.

Her many other talents and hobbies include quilting, homemaking, and candy making. Her chocolates are renowned near and far and have increased the stature of all those who have sampled them.

ReNee has given freely of her talents and abilities during her entire life. Her family, church, and community have been, and continue to be, the focus of her life and the recipients of her remarkable gifts.

SMITH, Jerry W.

Jerry W. Smith was born in Heber City, Wasatch County, Utah, May 22, 1928. My parents are Earl H. Smith and Annie Mae Giles Smith. I am the fifth of eight children and a step brother. Earl Smith Jr. (dec.), Doyle T. Smith, Pauline Smith Fitzgerald, Don G. Smith, Gwendolyn Smith Unthank, Ellamae Smith (Dec.), Blain E. Smith and Sylvan Jay Buehler.

As a boy I helped stockmen trail sheep down our street to the depot to be shipped to market on the train. I also herded many cows to and from summer pasture every morning and night. I lived a lot of my youth on horseback.

I attended grade school at the Central and North Schools and I graduated from Wasatch High School. I loved sports and played football, baseball, track and boxing, and also love fishing and hunting.

I grew up in a small meat packing business, owned and operated by my father, Earl H. Smith and Sons Custom Slaughtering and Wasatch Market. We had frozen food lockers. I spent most of my time on the kill floor.

I was drafted into the Army during the Korean conflict and spent 2 years in the service from October, 1950 to September, 1952. I spent most of my time in Japan and Korea. When I returned home and entered Heber Valley from the north, I saw the majestic Mt. Timpanogos and offered a silent prayer of thanks and said to myself, "Jerry you are home;" I haven't strayed very far since.

I met Glenna Carol Bonner, who was a waitress at Chick's Cafe, and she lived in Midway. We were married in her family home in September, 1953.

I went to work for Wasatch County as Deputy Sheriff under Floyd L. Witt who was sheriff in 1958, and was there until the end of 1963. I then went to work at Hecla Mine in Keetley. I worked as a miner, Safety Officer, and Shift Supervisor. I worked there 8 years until it closed. I then went to Salt Lake City and worked for Christiansen Brothers Construction Co. on commercial building. I enjoy watching a building grow from a hole in the ground.

I love working with the youth, and am a charter member of the Western Boys Baseball Association. I managed a little league team for 19 consecutive years. I have served on the Heber City Council and am a member of the Heber Valley Special Service District. I am also a volunteer fire fighter on the Heber Valley Fire Dept.

I was not always active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. I became inactive at 18, and developed a word of wisdom problem. Twenty years later I decided I didn't like where I was going, and I started to go to church again; in September, 1967, I took my family to the Temple.

I have held many positions in the church—Assistant Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster, Counselor and President of Ward Sunday School, Stake Sunday School President, a member of the High Council under President Reed Ford, and as Bishop of Heber Second Ward.

Being Bishop was the most rewarding and spiritual experience of my life. The Church was growing and boundaries had to be changed and I was to bring the members of two wards together as one. Working that close with the members was a growing and testimony building experience for me. It's a great ward. The people called to serve with me worked very hard, and the ward became very close. While Bishop, 15 missionaries served honorable missions, I performed 13 civil marriages, and conducted 30 funerals. I am grateful to my Father in Heaven for the opportunity to have served in this capacity. Since my release, I have served as Cub Master and in the Stake Aaronic Priesthood Presidency, and I am presently High Priest Group Leader.

SMITH, Glenna Carol Bonner

I was born in Midway, Wasatch County, Utah, on April 20, 1936 to Glade Alvah Bonner and Burnice Webster Bonner. I was the fifth child of seven children. I have one sister and five brothers—Beverly Ercanbrack and Richard Bonner of Heber City, Utah; Tom Bonner of Sacramento, California; Wayne Bonner and Gary Bonner of Midway, Utah, and Louis Bonner of Salt Lake City, Utah.

I attended Midway Elementary School for eight years, not missing a day of school in that time. The principal, Clarence H. Probst, gave me a pretty necklace for achieving this attendance record.

I attended Wasatch High School when it was located on Heber Main Street for three years. I worked at Chick's Cafe and the Heber Cafe while I was in high school and met Jerry Smith who had just been discharged from the Army, and we dated and became engaged the night I graduated from Seminary. I couldn't attend the graduation because I had red measles. The exercises were held on May 17, 1953 at the Tabernacle.

Jerry and I were married on September 15, 1953 at Midway, Utah by the Stake President H. Clay Cummings, a very special and spiritual individual. To this marriage were born five children: Kent B. Smith born April 2, 1954. He married the former Karen Duke. They have three daughters; Tiffany, Mindy, and Stacey, and one son; Kirk. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple on October 11, 1980. They reside in Heber.

Earlene was born May 30, 1955 and married Cory Lee in the Salt Lake Temple on October 15, 1976. They have one daughter, Mary Ann and live in Roy, Utah.

Our third child, Vance J. Smith was born on August 5, 1957 and died on August 7, 1957. This was a hard thing for us to endure, but it made us realize how important families are and this did bring its blessings.

Our fourth child, Roy B. Smith, was born on November 15, 1958. He married Leslie Hortin and they have one daughter MarDee and are expecting another child in the fall. They live in Wallsburg, Utah. They were sealed in the Provo Temple on December 18, 1982.

Our last child, Lynda May, was born on July 28, 1962 and married Layne Clyde who grew up in California and is the son of my lifelong friends, Neal and Connie Reed Clyde. They have two daughters; JaMay and JeNeal, and are expecting another child this fall. They were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple on April 21, 1984. Their oldest daughter was born deaf, but this has brought its blessings into our family.

Jerry and I took our children to the Salt Lake Temple on September 15, 1967 and were sealed as a family. All of the children have been married in the temple and are active in their respective wards.

In 1967, I decided to go back to school and graduate from high school by taking night classes and graduated in May 1967.

While my children were growing up, I worked at the Homestead, and for Glade Tregaskis, DDs, and Heber Hospital as a nurse's aid, and Wasatch County school lunch.

I have worked in the Primary, Mutual, and Relief Society. I have always enjoyed working with young people.

I love the church and the opportunities and blessings it has brought into my life. I love to read and embroider, but the most important thing to me is my family. The happiest day of my life was when our last daughter was married in the temple and the whole family was present. What a joy!

KELLY, David LaMar

I, David LaMar Kelly was born April 4, 1939 to Austin D. and Lona Burgener Kelly, the oldest of three boys. My brothers are Edward, married to Barbara Humes and Brent, married to Mary Thacker.

I have fond memories of my immediate and extended family, for we were very close and enjoyed many recreational activities together.

One time my cousins and I were playing by a swift flowing irrigation ditch when I fell in and was sucked into a culvert. When I emerged, I frantically grabbed at the grassy side to pull myself out. By the time help arrived I was able to boast that I had saved my own life.

Besides having fun, we worked together and learned many valuable lessons. Once my brother played hooky from tromping hay. When dinner time came, my uncle announced, "Kids who don't work, don't eat".

We got in to mischief, too. My cousins and I decided to hunt chickens. We clubbed 200 of Uncle Bill's post-fryers to death with green willows. We turned our shirts inside out so our mothers wouldn't see the blood, but they saw, and we were clubbed with the green willows we used on the chickens.

I moved through school from marbles to football, basketball and track. My size and a bout with mumps during playing season kept me from being an outstanding athlete, but my love for sports influenced my choice of profession. I also participated in band, operettas, assemblies and held my own academically.

My father, an animal trader, taught me much about animals. He also taught me that "If you dance, you have to pay the fiddler," a lesson I learned at 4 a.m. after a late p.m. dance.

CALL, J. Harold
Wasatch Stake President 1958 — 1972

I was the second child and first son in a family of eight children. My parents were Harold Call and Beatrice Patterson Call. I was born in Park City, Utah, May 8, 1917. Our family soon moved to Bremerton, Washington, where Father worked in the ship yards during the end of World War I.

Father became a grocery man and we moved a great deal as Father was moved from one city to another, to put a store that was losing money on a sound financial basis. In 1929 he moved to Sparks, Nevada, and went into business for himself. I graduated from Sparks High School in 1936.

A year later, I left on a mission to the Spanish American Mission. It was 34 months before I returned home. Shortly thereafter, I responded to call from the army and served 54 months, mostly in Alaska.

I enrolled in Brigham Young University as soon as I was discharged. While attending school I met the lovely Helen Pay and we were married. She is the mother of our eight children, Donald, Carolyn, Bruce, Darrell, Bryan, Mark, Randall and Keith.

Upon graduation from BYU, I went to the University of Utah Law School and graduated in 1952. I worked a short time in Salt Lake and then moved to Heber City, Utah where I opened a law office and where I have practiced since. In January of 1967, my sweetheart was killed in an automobile accident in Provo Canyon.

Four and one-half years later, dear Clarice Simpson had the courage to come into my life and help me raise the family.

I have enjoyed camping, and photography. I have twice made trips to Mexico, a trip to Israel, and Greece.

I had the great privilege of being called to serve as Wasatch Stake President for 14 years. I have taken part in civic affairs having been director and president of the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce, President of Wasatch County Red Cross, District Chairman of the Boy Scouts of America, President of Heber City Rotary Club and Chairman of the Wasatch Economic Development. I have served three terms as Wasatch County Attorney. For the past 14 years I have been instructor of the Gospel Doctrine Class in our ward.

CALL, Helen Elizabeth Pay

I was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, September 10, 1921, the third child of Philip LeRoy and Georgetta Paxman Pay.

I attended schools in Salt Lake City, graduating from South High School. The war was on and I was called on a mission to the Central States Mission.

After the war and the return from my mission, I went to Brigham Young University. There I met J. Harold Call. We were married December 2, 1945 in the Salt Lake Temple.

We lived in Provo while Harold finished school, then moved to Salt Lake where I raised a family while my husband was in law school.

After graduation from law school, we moved to Heber City, Utah. There we raised a family of eight children; one sweet daughter and seven sons.

I have always been active in the Church, working in all of the auxiliaries, serving as president of the Heber Second Ward Relief Society and giving full support to my husband in his church callings.

When we built a new home, it was a great thrill for me to have a place of our own.

Helen died in an automobile accident in Provo Canyon January 6, 1967, leaving the eight children, the youngest not yet 2 years old. They are Donald J., Carolyn, Bruce, Darrell, Bryan, Mark, Randall, and Keith.

CALL, Clarice Wilma Simpson

I was the sixth child to grace the home of James and Eunice Van Leuven Simpson in Bedford, Wyoming. Three boys and two girls made their debut before me, and two boys, (twins), were born after me.

I was born on my Aunt Clara's birthday, hence my name was derived from hers.

My father was a farmer and we learned the meaning of work very young in life.

My elementary school days were in a three-room school house, the teachers taught two to three grades each.

During my high school years, my parents bought a farm in Thayne, Wyoming, and the family moved to Thayne.

I attended the Star Valley High School in Afton, Wyoming. After graduation, I moved to Salt Lake City where I enrolled in the LDS Business College. I helped finance my education by living with a family and working for my room and board.

My first secretarial job was with the Safeway Stores General office in Salt Lake City.

The United States was now engaged in World War II. A picture of Uncle Sam with his finger pointed at you was on every corner, and the poster read: "UNCLE SAM WANTS YOU." Patriotism surged through my veins, and I enlisted in The United States Marine Corps Women's Reserve. My basic training orders took me across the nation to Camp LeJeune, North Carolina. Trains were the basic mode of transportation, and I enjoyed my first train ride. My basic training completed, my orders would take me to the Nation's Capitol. The rest of my service career was spent here.

The war ended and upon my return home, a call came to serve the church. My mission would take me to Eastern Canada. I was interviewed for my mission by Elder Albert E. Bowen, and was set apart for my mission by Elder Harold B. Lee, both members of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles.

I have a love for education and I enrolled at Brigham Young University. I graduated from this institution with a BA Degree in Psychology. I have done post-graduate work at the University of Utah.

Like the song, "San Francisco Here I Come," I found San Francisco beckoning me and I spent a year there working as an executive secretary for the Presidio of San Francisco. However; my roots belonged in Utah and I returned to Salt Lake City.

I worked several jobs before accepting a secretarial position with the Utah Legislative Council where I worked for 14 years. During these years, I taught night school classes at Stevens-Henager College of Business, LDS Business College, and Granite School District — Adult Education.

My career was drastically changed when I met and eventually married J. Harold Call, May 7, 1971, by President Hugh B. Brown. It was a most difficult decision to quit a good job to become a wife and mother. Time has proven my decision to have been right. The love and association of the Call family has richly fulfilled and blessed my life.

My mother, Eunice Simpson, came to live in our home in 1976 when my father passed away. We had the privilege of her association for 10½ years.

My church assignments have been varied. They include Stake Sunday School Board, Relief Society President, MIA Counselor, Sunday School, MIA, and Relief Society teachers.

My travels have taken me to Canada, Mexico, Israel, Greece, and to 43 of the 50 states.

FORTIE, John Alexander and Emma Jane Jeffs

Patriarch 1916 — 1957

Alexander Fortie was born in Heber, Utah, September 30, 1872. He was the son of Alexander and Rachel Howarth Fortie. John's father was a carpenter by trade and Abram Hatch persuaded him to come to Heber where he helped find him work. Alexander Fortie was the architect of the Wasatch Stake tabernacle which stands today.

John learned the trade from his father. He had two sisters — Pamela Cluff and Martha Murdoch.

When John was 18 years old his father died leaving John to care for his widowed mother. She later married William M. Giles and helped raise his 10 children. John went to live with his sister Martha until he was called on a mission to the Southern States in February of 1895. He served there for 3 years.

John married Emma Jane Jeffs, January 11, 1899.

Emma was born in Heber, Utah, May 14, 1875. She was the daughter of Mark Walker Jeffs and Mary Carlile. John Carlile — Mary's father, was one of the group to help settle Heber Valley in 1859. Emma's grandfather was the first man to die in Heber and be buried in the Heber Cemetery.

Mark Walker Jeffs dream was to be a successful businessman. A man loaned him $50.00 to buy supplies to get started. After many hardships and trials, he not only had his own store but a creamery, gristmill, show house, hotel, Heber Mercantile, and the Wasatch Coal and Lumber Yard. He gave freely to the poor and provided work for many families.

Emma worked in her father's store until she married John. Was very active in the Relief Society where she was secretary for 9 years, counselor to Mable Moulton and later President of the Heber Second Ward Relief Society. Performed in the theater and shows in the valley. Was a great mother.

John and Emma ran her father's store in Midway for 7 years.

John was president of the town board in Midway, Counselor to Jacob Probst, Mayor of Midway and was made a High Council member of Wasatch Stake. After selling the store, they returned to Heber and then went to homestead in Duchesne. John worked in Al Murdock's store along with farming. John was presiding elder until they made a ward and he was made counselor to Al Murdock and later to Victor Billings.

Life was hard in the basin with the Indians and the river and illnesses. Eight of them lived in two rooms.

Parents of eleven children which included two sets of twins. One set of twins died there. The other set was Dean and Deon. Dean married Adeline Davis who organized the Adeline chorus (6 members from 2nd Ward) and was the leader until her husband died and she returned to Idaho.

When John and Emma returned to Heber, they worked for her father in the Wasatch Coal and Lumber business which they later owned and operated.

John was President of the school board and served a term as mayor of Heber, 1918 — 1920.

On October 29, 1916, John was ordained a Patriarch of Wasatch Stake. He was 44 years old — the youngest patriarch in years at the time of his calling. Served there until his death, June 2, 1957, age 85.

Emma, along with members of her family, took care of John for 3 1/2 years as he was bedfast with a stroke. After his death, Emma remained in her home taking care of her needs and at the age of 88 passed away, January 1, 1964.

Only two of her children are living at this time.

MURDOCK, Joseph Royal

Wasatch Stake President 1905 — 1928

Joseph Royal Murdock, son of Nyphas Coridon and Sarah Mellissa Barney Murdock, was born in Salt Lake City, August 11, 1858. His father was born in Hamilton, Madison County, New York and traced his ancestry to Scotland, whence came his great grandfather.

"J.R." loved to roam the hills and often climbed Ensign Peak and learned first hand the geography of Salt Lake Valley. During the summer he herded cows and became familiar with the "East Ranch" and canyons as he trailed them many miles.

At fifteen he moved to Charleston, in Provo River Valley where he gained valuable experience in stock-raising, farming and merchandising. In this valley, he became famous for his work in irrigation programing.

He had early responsibility for the reclamation and development of the new farm which required construction and management of ditches and canals. He acquired equal interest and ownership with his father in the farm, livestock, sawmill, creamery, and merchandising business, and stock raising, especially sheep, with his sons and sons-in law in Utah and Wyoming. He organized the Charleston Irrigation Company and the Extension Irrigation Company. He and his father established the first creamery in Charleston and in 1875 they opened a general merchandise store and in 1880 the store was incorporated with J.R. Murdock as manager.

In Charleston, he was president of the YMMIA, Sunday School Superintendent and counselor to his father, Bishop N.C. Murdock. He was Justice of the Peace, 25 years Postmaster and 15 years a school trustee.

In 1901 he became counselor to President Wm. H. Smart of the Wasatch Stake. In 1903 he moved to Heber City and in 1905 with President and others organized the Bank of Heber City and the Heber Mercantile Company and was president of these two. In 1905 when President Smart was called as President of the Uintah Stake, a division of the Wasatch Stake, he was called as President of the Wasatch Stake and served for 23 years.

He was a County Commissioner for Wasatch County for two terms, a member of the Utah Constitutional Convention in 1895, a representative from Wasatch County to the legislature during the first and second sessions and in 1900 was elected a member of the Utah State Senate. During that year he sponsored the Dairy Bill which became a law. He served on many legislative committees.

He organized the Spring Creek and Brush Creek Irrigation Companies, which brought under cultivation the lands above Heber.

When the Uintah Reservation was opened for settlement he helped determine water rights and location and construction of canals. He was there to file on the unused water of the Provo River system and on Beaver Creek, a tributary of the Weber drainage system. The canal was constructed to bring the flood water of Weber across Kamas Bench to the Provo River. He developed the Provo Reservoir Company and the Utah Lake Irrigation canal systems. He was a member of the Utah Water Storage Commission and President of the Irrigation and Drainage Congress, and the Utah Water and Power Board which cooperated with the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation in development of the Echo Dam on the Weber River and water and power development of the Wasatch Front.

He became promoter and President of the Utah Oil Refining Company, the first of its kind. He organized the Sugar Centrifugal Discharging Company of Salt Lake City, a manufacturer of sugar refining machinery and acted as president.

He organized Wasatch Livestock Loan Company, which through its connection with Intermountain Livestock Marketing Corporation of Denver became an agency of the Federal Land Board in financing livestock growers of the intermountain region. He was president of this organization until his death May 27, 1931.

The book Utah, Since Statehood, states the following. "The name of Hon Joseph R. Murdock, of Heber City is synonymous with the development of irrigation interests in the west. He has contributed to public progress along various lines and in no field have his labors been more far reaching and resultant than in behalf of the reclamation of the arid lands through the conservation and distribution of the water supply of this section of the country. Mr. Murdock's efforts in this connection alone entitle him to rank not only with the captains of industry but with the benefactors of the race. The story of this life is an interesting one — the record of earnest endeavor crowned with successful achievement."

MURDOCK, Margaret Wright

Margaret was born in Provo, Utah, August 11, 1860, the daughter of William and Jemima Dands Wright. Her parents moved to upper Provo Valley (later Charleston) where her mother passed away leaving her father with a family of nine small children. The nearest neighbor was nearly ten miles away.

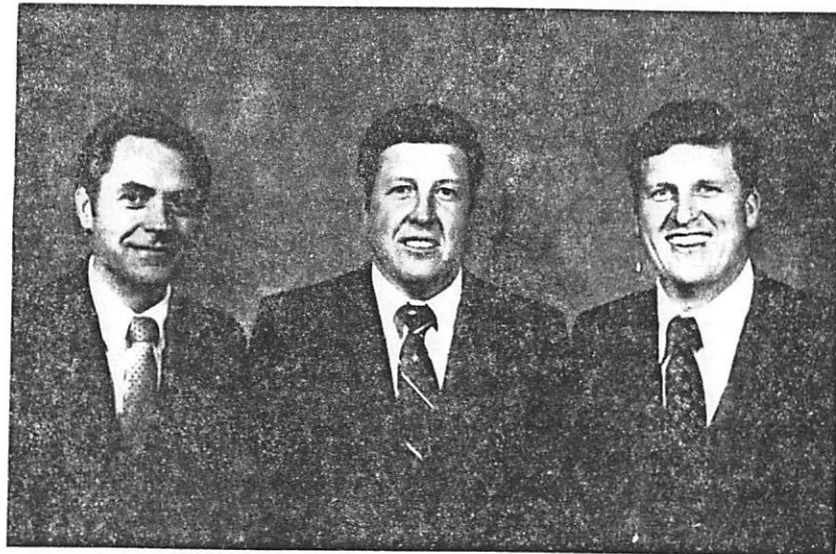

Margaret grew up in Charleston, attending her father's school, sometimes riding a horse, side saddle the nearly five miles where she met and married J.R. Murdock, November 28, 1878. Working in the church she became Charleston Ward Relief Society President and served throughout her life in leadership positions. She was very supportive of her husband. It was difficult for her to plan her day's work as there were so many changes since her husband was a prominent church and civic worker. She looked after his wants and needs. National, Church and State officials were comfortable in her home. She was gracious, kind and thoughtful and all were uplifted in her presence. No one knows how many meals she prepared for unexpected guests.

She and J. R. became the parents of eleven children: Mima Melissa (Mrs. David A. Broadbent)*; Maggie Josephine (Mrs.

Previous to moving to Idaho, I was employed by the Wasatch Motel and Valley Pride Egg Company of Heber City.

Lawrence and I are the parents of three children, George L. "Larry", Janet DeAnn Heroff, and William G. "Butch" Bates. Also we have nine grandchildren. We lost two step grandchildren in an automobile accident.

Lawrence and I enjoyed raising our family. We enjoyed spending time with my family. My brother, Alex "Skeet" Mair was a shepherd. We would take the kids and head for the mountains where "Skeet" always had sourdough biscuits ready.

As my hobby, I enjoy crocheting. Through the years I have received many blue ribbons in the Wasatch County and the Utah State Fair, Salt Lake City.

We enjoyed traveling and camping in our truck and camper. When Lawrence retired, we were able to purchase a travel trailer.

Lawrence passed away January 24, 1980 and was buried in the Heber Cemetery.

On September 2, 1983, I married Alfred L. Evans, who worked in the Salt Lake area for many years as a machinist until his retirement.

BAUM, Claud and Bertha Mulberry

Bertha Mulberry Baum was born September 4, 1903 a mile below the town of Gateway, Colorado on the Little Deloris River to Annie Forman Ames and Samuel W. Mulberry. When Bertha was born, she had four half-sisters and a half-brother whose father, Alfred Ames, had died. Her only full sister was Eva Mulberry (Johnson).

Because her father was a prospector, the family moved several times during her childhood. She remembers seeing Haley's Comet in Salt Lake City. When the family settled in Perry, Idaho, she had to walk three miles to school. There she learned to run a derrick, round up and harness horses, drive a team, plow, milk cows, and herd pigs. She also did housework for others to earn money for school clothes.

She was in the sixth grade when her mother became afflicted with cancer. She became so ill, the family moved to Salt Lake City for medical help for her. She died in 1927.

While Bertha was working for the McDonald Candy Company, she met Claud Baum, and they were married September 6, 1921, in the SaLt Lake Court House.

Claud Baum was born May 20, 1888, to John William and Maria C. Hicken Baum in Heber City, Utah where he received his education. Among the variety of jobs he held during his life time was working on a slow ship that transported supplies from San Francisco to France through the Panama Canal during World War I.

The Baum's only child, Claud William (Bill), was born June 6, 1927, in Salt Lake City.

In 1954, after Claud had worked at several jobs in the area of painting, maintenance, and repair, among which was helping refurbish the Angel Moroni atop the Salt Lake Temple, the Baums moved to California where they lived until 1964 when they moved to the Heber Second Ward. After a lingering illness, Claud died in 1973. Their son Bill, who married Leilan Jones in 1942, died of cancer in 1979, at age 56.

Bertha, talented in many ways, enjoys gardening, sewing, upholstery and carpentry. She likes especially bringing new life to worn out objects. Her home is lovely with her handwork which includes the paneling. Besides paneling their home together, she and her husband enjoyed camping and traveling.

She realized a long cherished dream when she received her endowment in 1974 in the Cardston Temple in Alberta, Canada. Later in the Salt Lake Temple, she, her husband, and her son were sealed together with Niff Watson as proxy.

BAUM, Thomas Isaac and Margery Mae Kiskadden

Thomas was born on September 22, 1915, in Heber, Utah. His parents were Isaac Fulwell and Grace Louise Lawry Baum who were married October 1914, in Grace's family home at Elkhorn (near present-day Hailstone Junction). Thomas has four brothers and sisters; William B., Louise, Earl Vern and Edith May.

Tom graduated from LDS Seminary and Wasatch High School in 1933, lettering in debate and drama. During the years of the depression, he worked his way through Brigham Young University, graduating in 1941 with a B.S. degree.

During his senior year at BYU, Tom volunteered for service in the Army Air Force and was accepted into the pilot training program. After basic training in Bakersfield, California and advanced training at Mather Field in Sacramento, he received his pilot's wings and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant. Tom was one of four in his class of 230 selected to become a test pilot. In January 1942, he was assigned to the Boeing Aircraft plant in Wichita, Kansas.

He was transferred to the Beech Aircraft plant where he met Margery Mae Kiskadden who was born to William Walter and Irene Sylvia Price Kiskadden on November 2, 1920, in Tulsa, Oklahoma. At the time they met, Margie, who had studied fine arts at three noted universities, was a secretary in the Beech flight office and a fashion model for several major stores in Wichita.

Tom and Margie were married in Wichita, Kansas, October 3, 1942. Following his assignment to Wichita, Tom was transferred to the B-29 Aircraft Modification Center in Denver, Colorado, where he achieved the rank of Major and advanced to second in command over the Center.

At the end of World War II, Tom was offered several attractive jobs as a pilot with commercial airlines but the offers could not compete with his love for the land and his desire to return to farming. He and Margie returned to Heber in 1945 and purchased 132 acres of his grandparent's farm. Together, they invested many years in restoring the old family farmhouse, clearing and leveling the land and establishing a successful farming operation.

To supplement his income from the farm, Tom served from 1946 to 1956 as an instructor for the Veteran Farm Training program. He also served as the local manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation program and as a director in the Federated Milk Producers Organization for Wasatch County.

Because of his long experience in farming, Tom was asked to appraise damages to farms when an interstate freeway was planned through the Coalville area. From 1957 to 1961, he appraised over 150 farms in Morgan and Summit counties. Tom always attempted to obtain a fair settlement for the damage to a farmer's property and he became well-known throughout this part of the state as an advocate of farmers' rights.

In 1961, Tom and Margie decided to expand their appraisal business and established Valley Hi Realty. This business grew to become a six person operation, presently run by their son, Richard. Their other children are: Sandra Foster, Robert Kiskadden, Lynn Dee, Kathy June and Rebecca Sylvia North. Tom and Margie have developed their business on a foundation of honesty. Undoubtedly, his reputation with farmers and his integrity is the best measure of his success.

BECKSTRAND, Mervin Bennett and Carolyn June Seiter

The Mervin B. Beckstrand family came into being on May 2, 1958, when Mervin Bennett Beckstrand and Carolyn June Seiter were sealed in the Salt Lake Temple by Elder Mark E. Peterson.

Mervin was born December 3, 1935, in the family home in Meadow, Utah to John Milton and Eva Lovell Beckstrand. In 1954, he graduated from seminary and from Millard High School where he played on the football team, was on the wrestling and boxing teams and ran the 4-40 in track. Besides participating in sports, he played the trumpet in the band and was a member of the dance band. He was selected to play first chair in the All-American Band. He was also on the school executive committee serving as commissioner of publications.

After attending B.Y.U. for two years, he was called to serve in the New England mission where he labored in Maine, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, and Connecticut. He served as Mission Recorder nine months, handling the membership records and publishing a mission newsletter.

On May 2, 1958, Mervin married Carolyn June Seiter, daughter of Walter Harry and Alice June Facer Seiter whom he had met before he left for his mission and who waited for him. She remembers the two rooms in the bakery her father owned that was her first home, and she recalls the many hours she spent in the bakery making and icing doughnuts, icing cakes and rolls, stacking cookies, clerking, helping on the bench, and washing dishes and pans.

In high school Carolyn was a member of the Waspettes, served on the newspaper staff, was a member of the debate team and of Salt Lake City; Brett Humes who married Shelli Hansen, Lehi; and Christopher Harding, Sequin, Texas.

Marie went back to school and graduated from Wasatch High. She took a course and received her nurse's aide certificate. She worked at the school lunch as a substitute, and at the handicapped school as needed.

She was a Primary, Sunday School and MIA teacher, and Relief Society visiting teacher in the Heber Second Ward. She enjoys her family and grandchildren. Her hobbies are flowers, making pillow cases, traveling, baking bread and pies and reading. She is now a Friendly Volunteer for Senior Citizens.

The couple took care of Russell's Uncle Tom, who was crippled for many years, until he passed away September 23, 1959.

Russell passed away July 20, 1982, victim of an apparent massive heart attack.

GILES, William Earl and Ruby Stanley

Ruby Stanley Giles was born in Park City, Utah, September 7, 1913 to Berten Stanley and Anna Elizabeth Davis. Ruby was the youngest of seven children and the only living one of this family.

She received her education in Tabiona, Utah, and there she met William Earl Giles. They were married December 11, 1928. They went to the Salt Lake Temple, November 2, 1932 and were sealed for time and eternity.

Wm. Earl Giles was born in Heber City, Utah, November 25, 1909 to Thomas Monroe Giles and Rachel Martha Buys. He was one of twelve children. Earl received his education in the Wasatch County School district and graduated from Wasatch High School. He worked in the New Park mine for many years then began to do house painting. For a short time he worked at the Midway fish hatchery where he suffered a heart attack. He recuperated from it enough to do many of the things he enjoyed. He loved carpentry work and building things from wood for his family. Earl's hobbies included fishing and hunting. He loved to work with the boys in little league baseball which he helped to organize here in the Heber Valley.

He served in the presidency of the High Priest's group of the Heber Second Ward, was finance clerk to Bishop Dan Bates and was a counselor in the MIA. He enjoyed his temple work, as an ordinance worker in the Provo Temple.

Earl passed away August 21, 1979.

He and Ruby are the parents of six children. They are Audrey, Chloe, Ruth, Boyd, Earlene, and Stanley. They have 27 grandchildren and 64 great-grandchildren. Ruby will soon be a great-great-grandmother, making five generations.

She has served in all of the auxiliary organizations of the church; Sunday school as a teacher, Primary as a secretary and teacher, MIA as a Beehive leader and in Relief Society as a counselor, a president, and as a visiting teacher for many years. She was called to work in the home craft department at Deseret Industries where she served for two years, then became a Provo Temple worker. After Earl's death, she was called as a Regional Branch Genealogical Librarian where she served for seven years.

Ruby enjoys her family, her many friends and sewing, crocheting, doing genealogy, and making quilts. She enjoys going to the Temple each week to do endowments.

GROTH, Brent Earl and Patricia Dastrup

I, Brent Earl Groth, am the son of Earl Melbourn and Florence Margaret Grant Groth. I was born February 3, 1943, in Oakland, California.

When I was four years of age my family moved to Sacramento, California where I was educated and graduated from Sacramento High School. During those growing up years, it was not uncommon to find me at the high fidelity shop or at the Southern Pacific and Western Pacific stations watching steam at work. The big thrill was to go with my dad to some remote location, such as Donner Pass, to watch as many as five double-jointed Malles "pulling the hill", a tradition that is carried on in our present family.

My first exposure to the Church was in my teen years when my father had a business dealing with an LDS bishop. Our vacation that year included a pilgrimage to Salt Lake City and Temple Square. My father passed away within four weeks after that visit so he didn't have a chance to take the missionary lessons. Though I never forgot the good feeling of that trip, it was over ten years before baptism came into my life.

After completing an apprenticeship as a mechanic with the California Highway Department, I moved to Pasadena where I worked for a man who was a genius with Basch fuel injection and Mercedes. After three years there, I accepted a position as instructor with Volkswagen of America.

When Pat and I met and planned to marry, we felt the Los Angeles area was no place to raise a family, so during a trip to April Conference, we took a side trip to Heber City, which we had learned about when we read the novel, A House of Many Rooms. Of course, any valley that has its own steam train can't be all bad.

So, here we are, twelve years later, with our antique Mercedes collection in tow. A Volkswagen repair shop is our situation along with an occasional Mercedes customer or restoration. A new venture is on the horizon, however. It began as a dream on the hillsides with my father. We are attempting to purchase an 1860's Civil War train to be used to raise money for needy and hospitalized children. Our cars are purchased and in storage in Salt Lake City, and, hopefully, the engine isn't far away.

I, Patricia Dastrup Groth, was born August 28, 1949 in Richfield, Utah, the third of fifteen children born to Evan Lamar and Marylene Reeve Dastrup. I grew up in Sigurd, Utah, and graduated from Richfield High School and in cosmetology at Sevier Valley Trade Tech. I attended Dixie college until the spring of 1969, when I transferred to BYU. While there, I lived with my cousin Rex Reeve, Jr. and his family. When they received their mission call to the Northern Indian Mission in Rapid City, South Dakota, I went with them as missionary housekeeper, an experience I really enjoyed.

Brent and I met in May 1972, and I followed him to California where I worked as a dental assistant while he was a Volkswagen instructor. Every time we attended conference, we hunted for a home in Heber, which we found in October 1974. We were married in the Manti Temple on April 23, 1975, and moved into our Heber home.

We have been blessed with six children: Brent Earl, Jr., Christina Marylene, David Lamar, Emily, Francine, and Gwen.

Christina lived with us only about six months, but she was a great blessing in our lives, and we are grateful for this experience.

Brent and I have held many positions in the Church. Brent has served in his quorum presidencies, as a teacher and as president in the Sunday School. Pat has served as a teacher in all the auxiliaries, and as an organist and a librarian. Currently, she serves as Primary counselor.

GOODE, Kavin Lee and Gayle Walker Parkinson

Kavin Lee Goode traces his ancestry to England where his last name is pronounced to rhyme with food. He was born August 12, 1955, in Compton, California, to Donn C. and Mavis Noble Goode. He has two brothers and one sister. When he was five years old, his family moved to Smithfield, where he attended school and graduated from Sky View High School. He attended Utah State University a year before serving a Minnesota, Minneapolis mission and returned there to continue his education.

At that time, he met Gayle Walker Parkinson, who, having lived in Wellsville, had also graduated from Sky View High and was attending Utah State University. She was born October 26, 1958 in Logan, Utah, to DeVon C. and Dora Walker Parkinson. She has four sisters and two brothers.

Kavin and Gayle were married February 17, 1978, in the Salt Lake Temple. Their dream had been to be married in the Logan Temple, but it was closed for renovation. Between the time they were married and the time he graduated in 1982, with a bachelor's degree in Industrial Arts, Kavin worked part time in a custom cabinet shop, and Gayle found full time employment sewing in a custom drapery shop.

Kavin is now employed at the Park City High School where he teaches Industrial Arts and Driver's Education.

The Goodes have four children, Christopher Thomas, Jennifer, Angela, and Joshua Lee. In 1984, they moved from the Heber First Ward to their present home at 651 North 100 West, where they are members of the Heber Second Ward. They have enjoyed living in Heber City and have made some very special friends whom they will always treasure.

The Hickens decided, after their girls married, to return to Heber City, where they made some dramatic and lovely changes in the old family home and settled down to enjoy their many life-long friends.

HORROCKS, Kent and Patricia Argyle

Kent was born in Heber City on October 6, 1953, to LeRoy and Arlene Horrocks and was raised in Heber City. He is the oldest of seven boys.

He was educated in Wasatch County Schools and graduated from Wasatch County High. In his senior year he started going to the Utah Technical College at Provo where he studied welding.

Kent has held a variety of Church positions which include being a Primary teacher, a Webelos Leader, a Sunday School teacher, the secretary of the Elder's Quorum in two different wards, and is presently the Second Counselor in the Elder's Quorum.

Patricia was born in Payson, Utah, on March 21, 1952, to Madison and Shirley Argyle and was raised in Payson. She has two brothers and was the second in the line of three. Patricia was educated in the Payson schools and graduated from Payson High. After graduating from high school she attended Utah Technical College at Provo for two years where she graduated with a Business Degree.

Patricia has held a variety of Church positions which include Sunday School secretary, a Primary teacher of just about every class there is in Primary, a Webelos Leader, the Nursery Leader of the Relief Society and the Primary, the Second Counselor in the Primary Presidency, and is now presently the Webelos Leader.

Kent and Patricia met while they both attended the Utah Technical College at Provo. They were married in Payson, October 14, 1972. They then moved to Evanston, Wyoming where Kent had a job. After a short time they moved back to Heber City where they started their family. They later solemnized their marriage in the beautiful Salt Lake Temple, April 18, 1980.

Dianna was born January 9, 1974, in Heber City and is the oldest of three children and the only girl. She had a very difficult start, but with her strong will, she made it. She is now in the seventh grade at Wasatch Middle School.

Kirk LeRoy was born May 15, 1976, in Heber City and is the second of three children. He is also the oldest boy, and is now in the fourth grade at the J.R. Smith Elementary School. With a lot of determination he will go far in life.

Christopher John was born April 26, 1981, in Payson and is the youngest. He is now in kindergarten at the North School. This is the same school his dad went to, so he thinks this is a special school. Chris has a lot of determination, which sometimes gets him in some pretty funny situations.

HULL, William Roy Sr. and Wives, Frances Leggett and Faye Nielson Jensen

William Roy Hull was born March 27, 1901, in Hooper, Utah, son of James S. and Mary Russell Hull. His father was called by the Church to go to colonize the town of Taber, Alberta Canada and homestead 640 acres. He also supervised the building of a hotel and helped build the Cardston Temple.

The couple took their 3 small children, James, Gladys and Roy and stayed about 4 years. When James heard the song "Star Spangled Banner" played he said, "I am going back to Utah".

They began the fish hatchery business in Mantua, Utah in 1906, the first commercial fish hatchery in the West. William Roy worked for his father, then started another hatchery in Burl, Idaho. He was acclaimed the most knowledgeable man in the fish hatchery business.

Roy married Frances Leggett June 26, 1923, in Farmington, Utah. They were later sealed for time and eternity with their 3 children in the Logan Temple. Her parents are John F. and Magdalena Parsons Leggett. They became parents of William Hull Jr., Ruth, Winifred, Jamie and Joyce, now having 16 grandchildren and 42 great-great-grandchildren.

Roy was a great sportsman and loved to hunt. When E. G. Bennett and Mariner Browning saw an elk hanging in a tree, they all became fast friends and enjoyed many hunts together. To show appreciation and knowing Roy's ability in the fish business, they helped establish a new fish hatchery in Murray for him. This he loved and was very successful until S.L.C., needing water drilled a well near his property which drained Roy's water supply killing 16,000 fish. He was forced to find a new location which he found north of Heber near the Hailstone area where they located and are still in business.

He and Frances celebrated their 50 years of marriage June 26, 1973. They were both active in the Heber 2nd Ward as they had been in the Murray area. She became ill and passed away December 1, 1977.

Roy was visiting a cousin of Frances', Faye Nielson Jensen who had recently lost her husband with a heart attack. She was living in Roosevelt, Utah, where she was a correspondent for the Deseret News and assistant editor of the local paper. She also helped edit the Ute Indian paper there.

She was born February 5, 1911, in Brigham City, Utah, the eldest of 11 children and daughter of Joseph C. and Martha Parsons and lived there with her first husband about 13 years before moving to Roosevelt. She was employed by Idle Isle Candy factory most of her life and became a professional chocolate dipper and many are recipients of her sweet talent.

Roy and Faye were married May 6, 1978, and enjoy their beautiful mountain home surrounded by trees, streams, luscious strawberries and interesting humming birds.

Faye's children are a joy to her and they are Larry, Karen Cook, Linda Smith and Joseph. She has 17 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Faye has served in nearly every position in the church and Roy a devout High Priest enjoys his Home Teaching assignments.

Their trout business is the best in the world hatching 200,000 eggs per year. You can enjoy the wonderful delicacy anywhere in the West.

At age 86, Roy still is managing this lucrative business with the help of his son Bill.

HULL, William Roy Jr. and Elizabeth Marie Giles

I was born June 10, 1924, to Frances Leggett Hull and William Roy Hull in Brigham City, Utah. We lived in Brigham until I was about five years old. Then we moved to Mantua, about five miles east of Brigham. I started school in Mantua.

In 1939, my dad bought a fish hatchery in Murray. After finishing the eighth grade we moved to Murray from Mantua to run the hatchery. I attended the ninth grade at Olympus Jr. High in Holladay. I finished high school and graduated from Granite High in 1943, and worked at the fish hatchery for five years during the summers after I graduated. In June, 1944, after one-year deferment for work, I enlisted in the Navy and was released in May, 1946.

What a great day May 21, 1927 was! Besides being Marie's birthday, Charles A. Lindbergh landed in France on completion of his famous solo flight across the Atlantic Ocean, just 15 minutes after her birth. The whole world was excited over this historic event. I was the first of nine children born to Dorothy Jacobson and Albert Waterfall Giles, and named after my two grandmothers, Elizabeth and Marie. My father's parents were from England, and mother's parents were from Denmark.

My father was principally a farmer, but for several years while I was at home, he hauled coal for a firm in Salt Lake City. We didn't have very many of the conveniences of life.

I began my schooling in Bountiful. When I finished the fourth grade, my family moved to South Salt Lake where I went to Madison School 5th through 9th grades.

During my fifth grade I was introduced to girl scouting. My story would not be complete without the fun experiences, choice friendships, and personal growth that came out of Girl Scout Troop #24. Our leader, "Sunny", Signe B. Luke, was like a second mother to all of us 10-year-old girls. We grew up, graduated from high school, got married, and had families, all under her watchful concern. Even until she died in 1979, we held almost yearly reunions. Being a very shy, bashful girl my growing-up years were greatly enriched by the love the girls and good leader had for me. Even now I cherish the experiences and memories of singing, camping, hiking, playing that we enjoyed together.

After finishing the ninth grade my family moved to the Holladay area. I graduated from Granite High School in 1945.

My first job was sewing the beautiful casket linings for Midwest Casket Co. This was the beginning of a life-long sewing career.

At this time I was living across the street from the Hull fami-

On December 5, 1947, we were married in the Salt Lake Temple, accompanied by our mothers.

Our first home was in Murray. Bill worked for his dad at the trout farm. I was sewing casket linings. Two years after we were married our first son, James Roy, was born Nov. 30, 1949. On Dec. 10, 1950 we had another son Robert Craig. Come February 20, 1952, we were blessed with a baby girl, Charlene. Next came our youngest son, David Warren, born May 31, 1954. We had one more daughter, Dorothy Lorraine born on Sept. 11, 1959. This completed our family.

Bill continued to work for his dad on the fish farm. In 1963, we found ourselves in Heber City with a new challenge for us and our children. Bill, along with his dad, worked hard to establish a new fish farm located on Heber-Kamas Road. We were living in Heber 5th Ward at this time. We helped in the building of our current building — 2nd & 5th Ward Chapel and Stake Center. Bill served as second counselor to Bishop Bates in 1967. Our three sons and one daughter served LDS Missions from 5th Ward.

In 1979, some major changes occurred in the Ward boundaries, and we were included in Heber Second Ward.

Over the years, wherever we have lived, we have enjoyed choice experiences through trying to live the gospel the best we could and serving in our callings. We appreciate the many choice friendships that have developed while living in Heber 2nd Ward.

HYDE, Robert Patrick (Bob) and Diana Moulton

Robert Patrick (Bob) Hyde was born in Salt Lake City on December 1, 1960, to James K. and Janice Joanne Terry Hyde, who were the parents of five children. Bob's family made several moves before settling in Daniel, Utah where he attended Wasatch Jr. and Sr. High Schools and became actively involved in basketball, football and track. It was while he was in seventh grade that his mother died.

After graduation from high school, his father having remarried, Bob moved to Salt Lake and shared an apartment with his sisters who were working there.

On March 28, 1980, in the Salt Lake Temple, Bob married Diana Moulton, who was born October 20, 1960, to Derial L. and Erma J. Whiting Moulton. She is one of twelve children.

With her sibs, Diana helped on the family farm and attended school, graduating with Bob in 1979. Immediately following graduation, she enrolled in the Mary Kawakami Beauty college in Provo where she received her license as an cosmetologist. That summer she was crowned Wasatch County Dairy Princess.

After Diana's graduation from beauty school, the young Hydes moved to St. George where Bob attended school and Diana worked. They then returned to Heber City to accept employment as caretakers of Marvin Miller's Outpost.

Both have been active in the Church. Bob has served in the capacities of teacher and secretary in the auxiliaries and in his quorums. Diana has served as organist, secretary and counselor in the auxiliaries.

Bob and Diana are parents of three children; Bradley, Jessica and Gregory.

Steve and I teach 12 & 13 year olds in Sunday School and love it. We have taught for 5 years. I have worked in Primary, Relief Society, MIA, in different positions. Our children have all had church jobs, and loved it.

We have lived in Heber 2nd Ward for 17 years and think we have truly been blessed to have picked this ward. Everyone always has been so kind and loving to our family. Our children have expressed how much fun it was to grow up in this ward. The neighbors and friends were great. They talk about the night games they played in our back yard with the Youngs, Daytonos, Calls, Smiths, Seiders and Muirs. The older people in our ward have been a great example to them. Margaret and Jack Rasband have been like grandparents to our children.

Steve has been with the Heber Fire Department for 14 years and he is serving as chief now. He has worked with Little League Baseball for many years. I have worked in PTA and Boosters Club at high school. We love camping, boating, fishing and all kinds of sports, if it is with our children.

We have a strong testimony of the missionary program, it was a wonderful experience for our family. It brought us very close together and the Lord has blessed our family many times through illnesses and hard times. We love the gospel and feel it a privilege to belong to this church.

JACOBSON, J.D. and Barta Sabey

J. D. Jacobsen was born April 30, 1918, in Wallsburg, Utah to Nephi Moroni Jacobson and America Jane Wall Jacobson. He was the seventh of nine children born to this family. His brothers and sisters are Grace, Verda, John, Nile, June, Susie, LeOra and Neldon.

When J.D. was two years old his family moved to Heber where they leased a farm and this is where he grew up. He attended school at the North Elementary School and later attended Wasatch High School. Each summer he would return to Wallsburg to work on his Grandfather Wall's farm. He would stay and work all summer until it was time for school to start in the fall.

Barta Sabey was born in Wallsburg, Utah December 18, 1915, the daughter of Ellis Clark Sabey and Ada Myrtle Gardner Sabey. Barta was the oldest girl, having an older brother, Berdell, and younger brothers and sisters, Charley, Nola, Lois, Stan and Ada. Barta was baptized the summer after her eighth birthday in Spring Creek, as was the custom of the time, since the creek was frozen over during the winter months. When Barta was thirteen years old, her mother passed away. Being the oldest girl, she willingly took over the housework and rearing the younger children, making it possible for her family to stay together.

As a young man J.D. loved to dance. It was while attending a dance in Wallsburg that Barta Sabey caught his eye. They were later married on August 26, 1938, in Provo, Utah. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple on March 17, 1950.

After their marriage J.D. worked in the mines in Park City for several years. After World War II began, J.D. was drafted into the Navy Sea Bees. He served in the South Pacific, spending most of this time in Guam.

After J.D. returned from the war, they purchased the home they still live in at 90 West 300 North. J.D. says, "He is a Jack of all trades, and the master of none." He has worked as a miner, welder, mechanic, and has worked many construction jobs as a heavy equipment operator.

J.D. loves the mountains and is an avid fisherman and hunter. He enjoys camping and horseback riding. He does beautiful wood work and has won several grand champion ribbons for his lovely cedar chests. He holds the office of a High Priest.

Barta's talents lie in knitting and crocheting, which she loves to do. She also makes beautiful quilts and enjoys sewing and reading. She has served faithfully in all the Church organizations and enjoys doing regular Temple work. Both enjoy working in their garden and caring for their yard and flowers.

Barta and J.D. have been blessed with four children. Ilene, married to LaVar Thacker, lives in Idaho Falls, Idaho. Joyce, married to John Wayne Lloyd of Heber City. Keith D., married to Deanne Graham, also of Heber City. Bruce L., married to Lynn North, and lives in St. George, Utah.

They are the proud grandparents of sixteen grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

JORDAN, Kenneth D. and Gaynell Sherman

I was born on December 1, 1954, to Cliff and Jane Johnson Jordan at the old Heber Hospital. Grandma Gay was there as a nurse to Dr. Draper.

I have an older brother, Bill, and sister, Lynda who always helped me as I was growing up.

I attended North Elementary, Junior High and Wasatch High Schools, and graduated in 1973.

Until a few years ago, when we sold the sheep, I worked with my dad and grandpa. Now, I help manage a cow-calf operation with my father.

I am the fifth generation on this ranch at Jordanelle. John Jordan homesteaded it in the 1800's and it has been handed down through the generations. But, I will probably be the last, because of the Jordanelle Dam that is to be constructed on the north end of the ranch, soon.

I met Gaynell Sherman while working with the sheep in the mountains of Rush Valley, in Tooele County. She worked at the Silver Sage, in Vernon, Utah and I often went there to call my father, to let him know what was going on with the herders and camp.

Gaynell and I became good friends and a couple of years later we were married on June 2, 1978, by Calvin Olsen, Gaynell's Bishop. Gaynell was born November 14, 1960 to Carol and Jane Purse Sherman. She grew up and attended the schools in Vernon, Utah.

We have two children; Kari Lynn, and Kimberly Jane. They are dad's little helpers at ages 8 and 6. They love to come with their mother to see me when I am staying on the desert. They enjoy the out-of-doors too!

KEELING, Brown Lowe, Pearl Inman and Hally Hall Gandy

Brown was born in the Smokey Mountains of White Oak, Tennessee. His parents, Daniel Marion and Fanny Amanda Keeling, were share croppers in cotton and corn. They lived about five miles from the closest school, which he attended by walking the distance, or riding a stubborn mule. He had two sisters, Ethel and Exieve, and two brothers, Fred and Lyman, the fiddler.

In 1926, he was married to Pearl Inman on Christmas Eve, December 24. In 1928, they came west, rustling work, which he found in the mines in Park City and in Great Lakes Lumber Company in Heber, Utah, then in the beet fields of Idaho.

Hitch-hiking back to Utah, he found employment in the Excelsior Plant, in Charleston, Utah, until he met with a serious accident. Later, after working for the Colorado By-Products Company in Heber, he started his own business of By-Products which he engaged in for nearly 12 years.

Since his retirement, he has enjoyed pursuing his hobby of hunting cougars and bears, and training his hounds. As an expert mountain man, he has been contacted by many groups through out the nation to lead them on hunts for fun and excitement, but that was not his pattern.

Their children are; Thomas Junior, Heber, Ted, living in Kaysville, Utah, Gwen, living in Morgan, and Margie, living in Layton, Utah.

Pearl passed away in April 1956.

Hally was born October 19, 1917, in Arkansas. Her parents are Robert James and Susan Dickinson Hall. She married Joseph Gandy in 1933.

After living in Oregon and Boise, Idaho, she with her husband, Jo and 2 children, moved to Heber in June 1957. He found employment with the Great Lakes Lumber Company but passed away in 1960 with a heart attack.

Hally worked as a hair dresser in Heber and Kamas until she met Brown and they were married August 12, 1961. She also owned and operated a small bookstore for many years.

Her children are; Diane Cochran who lives in Oklahoma, Duane Gandy, living in Arkansas and Rowena Shipley in American Fork, Utah.

Brown and Hally built a new home, north of Heber, where they enjoy and maintain a beautiful yard and garden. Brown still sneaks a little rendezvous in the surrounding hills.

KOHLER, Richard and Kathy Anderson

Richard was born November 30, 1949, in S.L.C., Utah, son of Walter D. and Viva Peterson Kohler. Kathy was born March 28, 1951, in Los Angeles, California, daughter of Kay J. and Amelia Marsh Anderson.

Richard and I, (Kathy), moved to Heber on May 31, 1981, which happened to be Memorial Day that year.

At that time we had two children, Amber who was two and Maile, who was one. We moved into Clover Meadows and have lived there since, at 59 West 650 North.

Rich had been working for Wolfe's Sporting Goods for many years in their Orem Store but was promoted to Manager of the Wolfe's store in Park City; because of that promotion we decided to move to Heber from Orem.

We weren't sure how we would like living in such a small, rural town but after a relatively short adjustment period we realized that we had been extremely fortunate to have the opportunity to live here. The Heber 2nd Ward has been the best ward we've ever lived in, and our friends in the ward and in Clover Meadows have been our closest.

Rich and I have held many positions in the ward since we moved in. I have been a Sunday School teacher, Relief Society mini-class teacher, a counselor in the Primary, Primary President, a Relief Society spiritual living and social relations teacher, and I am currently the Primary inservice teacher.

Rich was made the Elder's Quorum President soon after we moved in, which was rather a difficult assignment as we didn't know very many people or even where they all lived. After serving in the Elder's Quorum he was made 2nd counselor to Bishop Lamar Kelly on Jan. 1, 1984. That call was a big surprise, and we both worried a lot about how it would affect our family. It has affected our family immensely, but for good, not adversely.

Our lives have continued to change in the years we have lived in Heber. Two more children were born to us: Levi Richard on Sept. 10, 1982, and Spring Amelia on April 22, 1987. Herman's Sporting Goods purchased Wolfe's and Rich was transferred to Salt Lake, and then to Orem but we have still been able to make our home in Heber.

KUHNI, Frederick and Orel May Carlile

Frederick Kuhni was born November 27, 1897, in Langnau, Berne County, Switzerland, to Ulrich and Louisa Badertcher Kuhni. He attended school two years before the family was converted to the LDS Church and came to Utah, settling in Midway. School was very difficult for the children, as they spoke no English. They had five children: Ernest, Paul, Rosetta, Fred, and Otto (killed in Park Utah Mine in 1926). When Fred finished the eighth grade he went to Salt Lake, living with family friends, where he worked in the green house on Temple Square. Upon returning home, he worked as night watchman at the Snake Creek Power Plant. While working there he took a correspondence course in electronics and received his diploma. He was secretary and teacher in the Sunday School for three years, received an award for perfect attendance, and also served as a ward teacher. In 1923, he went to work on the electrical crew for the Park Mine where he remained for thirty-eight years and retired as chief electrician. He was the projectionist at the Ideal Theater for forty-five years and served under four managers, John Miller, Andrew Murdock, Ellis Murdock and Kent Hiatt. The Wasatch Wave published a very complimentary article about him when he died.

The little town of Charleston, Wasatch County, Utah, had the heaviest snow of the winter on May 8, 1905, the day I, Orel May, was born, to James William and Sarah Elizabeth Buys Carlile. When I was two years old the family moved to Heber Second Ward where I lived all of my life. I have six brothers and sisters: Lecil, Viva, Clara, William Walter, James Edward and Gladys. I attended the Central Elementary School, Junior High and Wasatch High Schools. My first job was with J.C. Penny Co. Later I worked for Mountain States Telephone Co. Fred and I were married on June 17, 1925, in the Salt Lake Temple by Elder George F. Richards. We were blessed with one daughter, VeNile, born July 10, 1929. She married Cloyd G. Gines of Provo, Utah. We have three grandchildren: Alan C., Mrs. Richard (Susan) Divers, and Lane C. Gines, and one great-grandchild. Shannon Divers.

I served in several positions in the ward. I taught Primary for seventeen years, the last nine as a member of the stake board with Annie J. Smith as president. I was kindergarten teacher in Sunday School, a visiting teacher in Relief Society, and lesson leader in the Fireside Camp of the D.U.P., and vice captain to Clara Epperson in the County Camp. At present I am a member of Camp No. 1. For several years I was cook at the Heber Hospital with Thelma McKnight. When the new Wasatch County Hospital opened in 1969, I went to work in the dietary department, and retired in 1979. Fred passed away on September 3, 1983, and was buried in the Heber City Cemetery.

LINDSAY, Thomas and Valerie Taioni

Thomas Lindsay was born April 26, 1924, at Heber City, Utah, in the northeast corner of the old Indian Fort. Valerie Taioni was born December 13, 1926, at Joeuf, France (Alsace Lorraine).

Our Parents — Thomas Payne Lindsay, born June 6, 1883, at Center Creek, Utah, and Lovina Bunnell, born August 15, 1885, at Center Creek, Utah. Tito Taioni, (adopted name — left on doorstep of orphanage), birthdate not sure of. Ramana Ramiece, (adopted name — left on doorstep of orphanage).

My wife, Valerie, is one of sixteen children. Of the eight boys and eight girls born to these good people, fifteen are still living today. Valerie started school at the age of three, and graduated at fifteen as a seamstress. All sixteen of Valerie's brothers and sisters graduated, and had occupations to go into. Things were rather bad for them at this time due to the start of World War II. They had to live under German occupation from 1939 to 1944 when they were finally liberated by the Allies.

I started school in 1930 at the North Elementary. My teachers were a Miss Brough, and Egan, Duke, Bond, Neilson, and Harrison. I stayed in school until two months before graduation. I dropped out and went to work in the mines for the month of April. Then I quit my job and went to do work for H. Clay Cummings up to the time of induction into the Army on June 4, 1943. I served in Europe from August, 1944 until April 1946.

I met my wife in December 1945, and we were married on the 15th of March, 1946. We have raised five children, two boys and three girls: David T., Scott Pierre, Betty, Nancy, and Michelle. We have 14 grandchildren. David volunteered for military duty, and served in the Republic of Vietnam. He received the Purple Heart for wounds, and was also awarded the Army Commendation Medal for Heroism. Scott also volunteered, and spent time in Germany. He has six years in the service of his country.

I worked for Turner Building Supply as a truck driver for 28 years, and at present I am working for the Heber City Corp. where I have been employed for the past four years.

I love to go camping, hunting and fishing, but most of all, I like to look for unusual-looking rocks. I have served as first counselor in the M.I.A., and assistant Scout Master.

Both Valerie and I like music, dancing, etc. Success in our lives is the fact that we own our home and are free from debt at this time. We definitely know that without the help and prayers offered by the priesthood, along with our own faith and prayers, two of our daughters, and our son, David, may not be here at this time.

My wife and I are of different religions, but we have managed to raise five wonderful children, and will celebrate our 41st wedding anniversary on March 15, this year.

LLOYD, John Wayne and Joyce Jacobson

John Wayne Lloyd was born March 29, 1937, in Murray, Utah to Earl Gunnell and Aritha Murdock Lloyd. He was the youngest of 10 children. He had four brothers and five sisters. In his early childhood he lived in Strawberry Valley where his parents ran a cafe and sawmill. During the winter months they came to Heber to live. He attended school in Heber where he played football and wrestled. After high school he married Joyce Jacobson.

Joyce was born in Heber City, Utah May 20, 1941, to J.D. and Barta Jacobson, she was the second child of four, one sister and two brothers. She was raised in Heber City where she also attended school. She married John Wayne Lloyd November 1, 1957. They are the parents of four girls, DeAnna, Debra, Teri, and Shonna. They also have one grandchild, Justin Wayne Sharp.

Wayne is self employed, he has owned and managed his own construction company for 30 years. He loves to go fishing, work with and ride his horses. He is a member of the bishopric where he is the membership clerk.

Joyce is a housewife and works part time. She likes to sew, golf, and bowl. They both enjoy there family and love doing things with them.

Wayne and Joyce live one mile north of Heber where they have a small farm.

They both are active members of the LDS Church in the Heber Second Ward. Joyce has served as counselor to Colleen Muir in the Relief Society organization, also as work director. In the MIA she served as activity director. Wayne has served as Deacon advisor and is now Membership Clerk in the Bishopric.

MAY, James L. and Carrie Sue Ray

"Jim" was born September 9, 1956 in Ogden, Utah to Ivan C. and Elenore Fiefield May. He grew up there, and graduated from Bonneville High School where he played in the high school band for three years. His employment was at Taco Time in Ogden.

He married Carrie Sue Ray, November 30, 1979. Their marriage was later solemnized in the Jordan River Temple June 10, 1982.

Carrie Sue Ray was born May 16, 1958 to Larry and Susan Adams Ray. She graduated from Clearfield High School where she grew up and attended Weber State College. After their marriage, they moved to Heber City, where Jim is the owner and manager of Taco Time.

They are both active members of the Heber Second ward. He has served in the Elders Quorum and as assistant and Scout Master, taught in Sunday School, Primary and various other positions. Carrie has served as Cub Scout troop leader, work director in Relief Society, in the Nursery, and as a Primary teacher, also on the activities committee.

They are the parents of three handsome boys — Justin Ivan, Tyler Dean, and Jared Riley.

They are happy and grateful for their testimonies and are a great and wonderful addition to the ward and community.

MAYOH, Lee Noah and Leah Ball

Lee Noah Mayoh was born November 26, 1916, in Heber City, Utah the fourth child and first son of Peter Joseph and Sarah Ellen Lee Mayoh.

Lee attended schools in Heber City and graduated from Wasatch High School and Seminary. In high school he played on the football and basketball teams.

After graduation, he was employed on farms and ranches in construction and in logging mills. December 1941, was the beginning to the many years he has worked in mines in Park City and other places.

On June 7, 1939, he married Leah Ball in Henefer, Utah. She was born October 18, 1918, in Henefer, the second child of Frank Lester and Ruth Annie Beard Ball. She attended school in Henefer and graduated from North Summit High School. Their marriage was solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple November 3, 1952.

Lee was ordained an Elder in 1948 after being inactive in the Church for several years.

Since then, he has served as a teacher in Sunday School and priesthood classes, in the Sunday School Superintendency and as High Priest Group Leader.

Leah has served as a teacher and counselor in Primary, as a teacher in the Y.W.M.I.A., where she earned the awards with the girls she was teaching, and she also served ten years as the Stake Librarian and as Primary Librarian.

Together they served on a South Carolina Columbia Mission from 1984 to 1985, where they assisted in the Darlington area in various capacities.

Their children are Dean LeRoy, Leo Noland, Leslie Joseph, LaRae, Leland Frank, and LeAnn Ellen. Three of their sons, Leo, Frank and Leslie served their country in the military, and three of their children, Dean, Leo and LeAnn, have served on missions. They have eleven grandchildren and twin great-grandchildren.

During our years in this ward, we have held many positions. The past year I have been a manager for Hermans Sporting Goods in Park City. Diane spends most of her time at home with our children. We enjoy being part of the Heber 2nd ward and feel blessed to have such wonderful friends and neighbors.

PRICE, Vernon W. and Relva Ritchie

Vernon Washington Price was born on February 22, 1912, in Charleston, Utah while his father John H. Price was serving a California mission. His mother, Sarah E. Winterton and brother, H. Fred, and sisters, Florence (Mrs. Hartley Carlile) and Rula (Mrs. Jasper McClellan), were supportive, doing the necessary farm work.

He attended Wasatch High School, where he sang in the Glee Club and played in the band. Transportation was by horseback and wagons until a bus was provided.

After returning from a Western States Mission (Denver, Colorado), he married his sweetheart, Relva Ritchie of Charleston, Utah, in the Salt Lake Temple on June 2, 1937. Three months after they were married, he was called to serve as a member of the Wasatch Stake High Council under H. Clay Cummings, Nephi Probst, and Don Clyde. During the seventeen years he served on the Stake High Council, he served as Stake YMMIA President and as Chairman of the Wasatch Stake Dairy Farm Operating Committee.

In 1941, Vernon and Relva purchased the Abram Hatch Farm, (1/2 mile north of Heber City), they became members of the Heber Second Ward. At the division of the Heber Second Ward (September 10, 1954), Vernon was called to serve as Bishop of the new Fifth Ward. Many new members were called into activity and the Ward was united as they worked and planned for the new chapel and Stake Center. He served for nearly 9 1/2 years. Other positions he has held in the Ward include: High Priest Quorum Presidency (three times), Sunday School Presidency (twice), and instructor of both the genealogy and teacher development courses.

Through their dairy business, Vernon and Relva both served in state and county positions of leadership within the Utah State Dairy Association and Utah Farm Bureau, traveling throughout the state to promote and lend support to their programs.

In 1972, they were called to serve a mission in the Fiji Mission, laboring on Niue Island, in the South Pacific, among a warm and loving people who lived in a tropical paradise, with a growing testimony of the gospel. On their return, they became Provo Temple workers, a mission they still enjoy.

Relva was born February 9, 1914, in Charleston, Utah to John M. and Sarah E. Wright Ritchie. She was the youngest of nine children, one dying in infancy. Her church work began when she was called to be a Primary Organist at 12 years of age. She learned to play the pedal organ when her father, a Bishop in Charleston, Utah (for nearly 32 years), sent her to help clean the chapel every Saturday morning. This became a talent she has enjoyed for over fifty years. Her brothers and sisters are: Mabel, Lacy, Vera, Elden, Clyde, Horace, and Verdell.

Relva was called, in 1952, to serve as the Wasatch Stake Primary President. In addition, she has served in all ward and stake organizations as counselor, teacher, or organist.

Their children are: Duane (Alpine, Utah), who served a mission to Argentina and was Bishop of his ward in Fair Oaks, California. He is employed by the Federal Land Bank of Sacramento. Elaine Arns, (Richfield, Utah), who served as Primary and Relief Society Presidents. She works for the Utah Power and Light Company. LuAnna Keele (Salt Lake City), who serves as a Relief Society teacher in her ward. She is an English teacher at Valley Junior High School in Granger.

Neil (Grand Forks, North Dakota), who served a Canadian Mission (Ontario/Quebec) and has served as stake Sunday School president and ward executive secretary. He is a professor of library science at the University of North Dakota.

"Our love for our family and for our Savior and His mission has prompted a life of devotion to the up building of the Kingdom of God on the earth. We are grateful for our testimonies of the truth."
